

The World

Published by the Press Publishing Company.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 7.

SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION

(Including Postage).

PER MONTH.....30c.

PER YEAR.....$3.50

VOL. 29.....NO. 10,122

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class matter.

BRANCH OFFICES:
 WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE—1207 BROADWAY, between 114 and 120 sts., New York.
 BROOKLYN—350 FULTON ST. HARLEM—News Department, 150 East 125th St. Advertisements at 237 East 115th St. PHILADELPHIA, PA.—Lindner Building, 112 South 6th St. WASHINGTON—410 14th St.
 LONDON OFFICE—32 COCKFUR ST., TRAFALGAR SQUARE.

THE APRIL RECORD.

The Number of "WORLD'S" Printed During the Month of April, 1899, Was

TEN MILLION
 FIVE HUNDRED AND SEVEN
 THOUSAND SIX HUNDRED AND EIGHTY.

THE DAILY AVERAGE WAS

350,256,

Exceeding the Combined Circulation of Any Two Other American Newspapers.

CIRCULATION BOOKS OPEN TO ALL.

TO PLEASE THE FEW-HOLDERS.

It seems to be quite unpleasant in some quarters to hear the plain, unvarnished truth told. To suit their taste all pictures of our National life must be painted in bright colors with no sombre shadings.

An address like Bishop Potter's, pregnant with admonitions of lurking dangers, is distasteful to those who are responsible for some of the dangers. To refer to them seems like getting personal.

Bishop Potter finds himself somewhat in the position of the young clergyman who was called to a fashionable church. The "pillars" of the Society were men whose real piety was in inverse ratio to their contributions to the church. The new pastor was a firm believer in the strictest orthodox creed.

In his first sermon he was vehement in his denunciation of sin of all kinds and trod heavily upon the corns of many of the influential "lamb" of his flock. They kicked vigorously. They declared that they would not pay a preacher to talk in that ungracious way. It was "bad form," don't you know.

A committee was sent to the errand domain to inform him that his references to a possible hell for evil-doers were not in good taste, and that his continuance as pastor depended upon his paying more attention to painting beautiful pictures of heaven to the absolute exclusion of any remarks on subjects which might be uncomfortable to the pew-holders.

Such a committee is now waiting on the Bishop, and they are meeting with a warm reception.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING.

It so happened that the South Carolina contingent in the Centennial parade by some oversight was minus the Stars and Stripes. It was simply a blunder, which signified nothing.

However, Gen. SHERMAN, who is old enough to know better, has called attention to the fact, and it has been sought to use the incident to convey the insinuation that South Carolina is not as loyal as she ought to be. This is sheer nonsense.

Has it ever occurred to the perspiring patriots who are having such a loyal sweat over this insignificant incident that if the South Carolinians did not glory in our country, and were not in hearty accord with this celebration they would not have been here?

President Harrison's own State did not contribute a soldier to the parade. What's the matter with Indiana?

A CONSIDERATE PATRIOT.

OLIVIN GORMAN, a brother of Senator GORMAN, of Maryland, and a Democrat, was recently appointed to office by Secretary WINDOM, whereat there was howling loud and deep from hungry Republicans.

In a letter to the Secretary, Mr. GORMAN declines the office, because it would subject the Secretary to criticism from his party friends.

Evidently Gorman knew when to let go. He appreciates the appetite of the spoilsman.

WORLDLINGS.

A new volume of verse by Amelie Rives is to be published in September. The authoress expects to sail for Europe May 10 with her husband.

The only woman dentist in Brooklyn is Dr. Louis Adele Cuneo, who is a graduate of the Pennsylvania Dental College.

The Connecticut man who hit upon the device of putting copper tips on the toes of children's shoes has realized a fortune of $1,000,000 from his idea.

John Burroughs, the author, has not eaten meat for three years. He finds that his nerves are much steadier than they used to be, and that he needs less physical exercise.

ILLUSTRATED JOKE CONTEST.

A Great Opportunity for the Funny Artists.

Walt McDougall, "The World's" Cartoonist, Will Act as Judge.

A Gold Double Eagle for the Best Illustrated Joke or Funny Cartoon Submitted.

The next contest in THE EVENING WORLD'S popular series should be even more amusing than any of its predecessors.

The usual prize—a double gold eagle—is hereby offered for the best original illustrated joke.

Walt McDougall, "The World's" cartoonist, will be the judge.

The illustrated jokes may touch on any topic. The line between a funny cartoon and an illustrated joke is sometimes so indistinct that both will be admitted in the competition. The judge in making his decision will consider all points, the humor of the text and of the picture, and also the execution of the latter.

All drawings must be in outline with pen and ink, and about four inches square.

All competitors in this contest must address their communications to Editor Illustrated Joke Contest, THE EVENING WORLD, New York.

"FEATHERBRAIN."

With one or two touches of human nature, and a faint relief of some sort from incongruities that fatigue because they lack contrast, "Featherbrain," produced last night at the Madison Square Theatre, would become an acceptable play. A glimpse of the incongruous, with its pleasant reversal of ideas, is humor, of course; but if you see nothing else, if you get an exclusive diet of incongruity, it soon begins to pall upon you, and ends by funnily wearing you.

That is exactly what "Featherbrain" did last night. It had been adapted by James Alberty from the French of Theodore Barriere, Raymond Deslandes and Edmond Gondinet, and it must have been translated a great deal more than adapted. All of the characters are French in their peculiarities, and that is why "Tate de Linotte" may have been successful in Paris. It showed a number of probable French people in improbable situations. The result was humor. This adaptation showed a number of improbable English people in improbable situations. There was no contrast. The result was not humor. To appreciate improbability you must have it a point of drinking Worcestershire sauce you would find that a dash of it would impart no piquancy to a beefsteak.

"Featherbrain" is full of situations such as Mr. Daly would appreciate—only he wouldn't have so many of them. The story deals with a hoydenish and somewhat imbecile young married woman who is violently loved by an amorous Portuguese, whom she has met at Boulogne (pronounced last night, by the by, as Bou-lon and Blone). She has a husband, fat and middle-aged, also a "platonic" lover, who has written her letters. She loses these effusions, and has to find them, and the peculiar course of the piece given some time ago at the Bijou, called "Katti, the Family Help."

Miss Minnie Madern is an extremely charming young woman, with a refined and pleasing personality. It would be absurd to criticize her conception of the part of Featherbrain, because no conception was at all necessary. In the first act she did some very clever work. She would have done more had there been opportunities. Miss Madern has a great future, but not in this style of piece.

The hit of the evening was made by Wilton Lackaye. No more admirable interpretation of the rôle of Don Stephano Ruy Gomar could be imagined. Mr. Lackaye is an artist. His performance was polished, and every little detail was delightfully brought out. He must have gone to Portugal for his hat. It was a marvel. James A. Barrows gave an effective touch to Samuel Coney and Thomas Burns such union to Ferdinand Pettigrew. William Faversham was very bad as Valentine Day. He is long and lank, and suggested a contortionist rather than a comedian in his exits and entrances. Miss Adeline Stanhope was successful with the rôle of Mrs. Pettigrew.

ALAN DALE.

In Memoriam.

First Settler—Who's that snob?
 Second Settler—That galoot? Oh, he's a Chicago pork packer's son.

Come to lunch, cattle-raiser?
 "Good, no!" The old man sent him by to learn good manners.

Unpardonable.

"Mr. Gotham," said the Back Bay young lady, icily, "permit me to return this ring, together with the presents you have given me from time to time. Hereafter we are strangers."

The uncertain young man from New York had spoken of Boston's fondness for Wagner as a bid.

The Revenge of Time.

Timeyard—Who is that stunning girl you raised your hat to?
 Ribboney—Miss Goldie Bullion.

Timeyard (timidly)—She didn't return your courtesies. Perhaps she doesn't know you.
 Ribboney (bitterly)—No; she does not know me now; but when I am the only young man at Ocean View next summer she will not only know me but pine for me in vain.

Bought the West Side Hotel.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

Coogan Brothers, the well-known furniture dealers, have purchased the property known as the West Side Hotel, corner Sixth avenue and Fifth street, on which they will begin the erection of a mammoth building, to be used as a branch for their business, as soon as the present occupant's lease expires.

LABOR'S VIEW OF IT.

Bishop Potter's Sermon Fell on Good Ground There.

Indorsement of His Warning About Political Corruption.

Bishop Potter's bold Centennial sermon has attracted as much attention in organized labor circles as it has from other sources, and is variously commented on by the labor leaders.

His arraignment of plutocracy and his denunciation of the methods of practical politicians were in line with the utterances of orthodox labor reformers, while to some parts of his sermon in St. Paul's it was said that labor men took exception.

With a view to presenting every point of view of this new and important issue, an Evening World reporter today sought expressions of opinion from several labor men well qualified to speak on the subject and whose views will undoubtedly be read with interest.

Edward King, a hard-working type-founder and an ex-delegate to the Central Labor Union, gave his views as follows:

"On the literary, vote-buying question I will say that the men who work most to build up the labor movement have always preached Bishop Potter's doctrine and denounced bribery in countless resolutions.

The class of people to whom the Bishop belongs have constantly replied that it is the work of the labor movement to build up the labor movement, while to some parts of his sermon in St. Paul's it was said that labor men took exception.

"I have the Bishop will stand true to his colors when something honest needs to be done. Washington's personal character was certainly above the political level not only of our own times but of his own times. His inflexible devotion to what he conceived to be the national policy led him to most outrageous neglect of his family, whose life was in danger during the reign of terror and who appealed to him in vain.

It seems to me that so deep is the evil of financial and other corrupt influences on the honest registration of a man's real convictions at the polls that I believe no new or reformed political party could be free from not only the suspicion but the fact of like evil.

I believe that it is possible to reproduce both the temper and the conduct of the reformers, but not as a rule to the kind of reformers, Democratic or Mugwump political fakirs. There are honest American and foreigners in each of these political groups, and when they openly and sincerely unite as citizens, apart from political side-shows, to reform American history and to conduct a propaganda among the mass of the people, inspiring honor and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

In my own obscure and humble way I have constantly for ten years sought to include in educational work among my fellow-workers, and have sought successfully to find a basis and reverence for the honorable and the patriotic simplicity, vigorous and healthy scholarship, and lofty moral character which characterize the American Revolutionaries, all revolutionaries of any other country, only then will there be any hope of practical results from such a union.

N. B.—Our customers and the trade in general will please take notice that we are determined not to carry away a single dollar's worth of goods from our RIGHT AND VERTUE STORES. Everything will positively be sold, even if we have to close out the balance of the stock at auction.

REMOVAL SALE.

We are now erecting new buildings on Sixth Avenue, Twenty-second and Twenty-third Streets, into which we shall move as soon as they are ready. We shall not take with us one dollar's worth of our present stock—everything must be sold to the very counters and fixtures. And the consequence is that we are now conducting a gigantic

REMOVAL SALE.

We append some specimen items as an indication of the tremendous reductions that have been made in every department.

BARGAINS IN LADIES' CLOAKS AND SUITS:

Beaded Silk Wraps, silk lined, lace sleeves, and finished with jet drops.....$3.80

All-wool Cloth Jackets, tailored finished, all colors.....3.75

Same, all colors, with vest.....6.00

Newsweek Wrappers, Mother Hubbard front, princess back, lined waist.....1.30

Moiree Brilliant, very fine, all colors.....5.00

BARGAINS IN DRESS GOODS:

Striped Mohair De Belges, were 10c., at.....9c.

Double-width Cashmere De Belges, brown and gray mixtures, were 20c., at.....10c.

All-wool Cheviots, double-width, striped and checked, were 40c., at.....27c.

Double-width, were 60c., at.....39c.

Redford cord Suitings, all-wool, double-width, were $1.25, at.....65c.

50c. of Good Truth, all colors, at.....25c.

Black all-wool French Henrietta Cloth, all wool, was $1.35, at.....75c.

BARGAINS IN LACES:

20c. Ligon Lace, edge and inserting, hand-made, 3 to 5 inch.....9c.

40c. to 75c. Cluny, edge and inserting, hand-made, 5 to 7 inch.....25c.

61 Florentine, Chantilly, Spanish Guipure.....49c.

75c. Egyptian Florentine, 42 inch wide, 25c. at.....25c.

61 Flatt Val. Florentine, 42 inch wide, 25c. at.....49c.

61 Florentine, Point de Gene and Point de gaze, 42 inch.....$1.00

61 Broderie Neta, La Toque and Chantilly, 54 inch.....90c.

BARGAINS IN HOUSEHOLDING GOODS:

Clothes Baskets, strong willow, good size, Improved Universal Clothes Wringers, family size, pure hard white rubber rollers.....$1.05

Walnut Knife Boxes, strongly made.....14c.

Infant's Bath Tubs, heavy japanned iron, cedar Pails, 3 quart hoops.....49c.

Sink Sinks, rubber edged.....4c.

Carving Sets, knife fork and steel, best Sheffield steel, real stag handle, set.....$1.48

Rogers triple-plated Table Knives, set, 40c. at.....48c.